

14th Annual National
LOSS Team Conference

CALL FOR SPEAKERS

In 2025 we're focused on our theme, Cultivating Postvention and Survivorship. The conference will take place October 13 - 15 at Hilton Omaha 1001 Cass Street in Nebraska with 200+ LOSS Team Members, Survivors of Suicide, Law Enforcement Representatives, Prevention Specialists, Clinicians, Faith - Based Professionals, Coroners and Postvention-Focused Businesses and Organizations alongside anyone with an interest enhancing the healing of those impacted by suicide from around the country!

About the Breakouts

There will be 15-20 breakouts selected for this conference. Each breakout will be allotted 45 minutes (to include Q&A if applicable) with a 15 - minute cushion on either side for room transition and continued individual connection. Presenters will be required to provide an accurate description of their talk and their slides for review prior to the conference. Presenters will utilize their own laptops to present. Presenters must use the microphone to ensure accessibility for all attendees

What is Provided?

Each breakout room will be equipped with connections for your laptop, a projector and a microphone. Presenters are not compensated, but will receive conference registration for the two day conference at no cost. In addition, sessions will receive a listing in the conference App and website, access to discounted room rates should you decide to stay on site, inclusion in conference meals and admission to the reception.

Pre Conference Registration not included

Deadline for Application: May 31, 2025. Notification: June 16, 2025

RFP Overview

Apply
Here

During the conference we hope to share the platform with a diverse and broad representation of Postvention. Our presentations should be as varied as our audiences will be. Our goal is that attendees leave feeling connected, refreshed, valued, and hopeful with a vision for what can be and ready to try new ideas they were equipped with during the conference.

Potential Topic Areas Include but should not be limited to LOSS Team development and sustainability, Clinical grief support for survivors, Survivor stories, Trauma-Informed care, Peer Support, Support Groups, Law Enforcement & First Responder Perspectives, Supporting Diverse Populations, LOSS Team Funding, LOSS Team Volunteer Recruitment, Training and Team Building, Outreach to loss survivors, Rural Considerations, Suicide Prevention for Survivors, Panel or Facilitated Group Conversations, Self Care, Volunteer Health, Post Call Debrief, Unique Suicide Scenarios such as Murder-Suicide, LOSS Advisory Boards, Ancillary Services such as Clean Up, Cultural Sensitivity during Loss, Veterans, Youth & Youth Voices.

RFPs will be reviewed for Safe & Hopeful Content, use of Best Practices, varied view point of attendees including that of recent Survivors or first time conference attendees.

Be prepared to:

- Share your Title, Presenter Information, Select a Main Category and Level of Content (introductory, intermediate, advanced)
- Submit a Presentation Description
- List 3 Learning Objectives
- Describe your time breakdown
- Provide references and citations if applicable

Brainstorming and review sessions are available with Conference Coordinator prior to submission if desired! Email to nwallace@thekimfoundation.org to schedule.
